

Rehabilitation Services Fast Facts

Your journey to finding your path

Occupational Therapy (OT)

- Facilitates development and rehabilitation of patients with mental, emotional, and physical disabilities by planning and administering medically prescribed occupational therapy.
- Helps patient develop or regain physical or mental functioning or adjust to disabilities by implementing programs involving manual arts and crafts, practice in functional, prevocational, vocational, and homemaking skills, activities of daily living, and sensorimotor, educational, recreational, and social activities; directing aides, technicians, and assistants.

Requirements:

- Master's degree
- State license
- Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and Basic Cardiac Life Support (BCLS)

2022 Median Salary is $93,180

12% job demand increase estimated between 2022-2032

Physical Therapy (PT)

- Performs diagnosis on individuals of different ages who have restricted movements and performance due physical injuries.
- Develop a therapy or treatment plan for patients.

Requirements:

- Doctorate degree
- State Licensure

2022 Median Salary is $97,720

15% job demand increase estimated between 2022-2032

Rehabilitation Services Fast Facts (cont.)

Speech and Language Pathology (SLP)

- Diagnose and treat patients who have communication disorders.
- Provide services that are aimed at helping patients with cognitive-linguistic impairments in areas such as fluency, swallowing, literacy and speech, which can happen because of cancer, having a stroke, neurological disease, seizures, or any other underlying medical conditions.

Requirements:

- Master's or Doctoral degree
- State Licensure

2022 Median Salary is $84,140

19% job demand increase estimated between 2022-2032